

MoDELS/UML conferences

Written by Birgit Demuth
Friday, 28 April 2006 15:52

The MoDELS series of conferences \(formerly the UML series of conferences\) are devoted to the topic of model-driven engineering, covering both languages and systems used to create complex systems. These conferences include both scientific and experience conference papers, workshops, tutorials, a doctoral symposium and poster sessions. Two of the main topics in recent years were both the UML and the OCL language.